

There is enough censorship from the Federal Government in my life. The FCC should mind its own business. I personally believe that at this time in our Nations History there are more important things our government should be concerned with. XM radio provides me with services that other providers can't. In an emergency I want to know...where, when and can I personally help others.